Almost done! The big picture of health and wellness.

Think about health in the big picture as your overall state of wellness, and not just whether you feel well physically. Wellness includes many areas of our lives, like whether we have good relationships, find meaning in our lives, or pay the bills without worry.

61. Which one of these areas do you think of as your biggest challenge to wellness today – the area where you are farthest from where you would like to be?

15.0% Emotional—Coping effectively with life and creating satisfying relationships

8.0% Environmental—Good health by occupying pleasant, stimulating environments that support well-being

13.0% Financial—Satisfaction with current and future financial situations

3.0% Intellectual—Recognizing creative abilities and finding ways to expand knowledge and skills

11.6% Occupational—Personal satisfaction and enrichment from one's work

37.4% Physical—Recognizing the need for physical activity, healthy foods, and sleep

6.0% Social—Developing a sense of connection, belonging, and a well-developed support system

6.0% Spiritual—Expanding a sense of purpose and meaning in life

62. Which one of these areas do you think of as your main strength in wellness today – the area where you are closest to where you would like to be?

- 19.7% Emotional—Coping effectively with life and creating satisfying relationships
- 4.4% Environmental—Good health by occupying pleasant, stimulating environments that support well-being
- 8.1% Financial—Satisfaction with current and future financial situations
- 15.3% Intellectual—Recognizing creative abilities and finding ways to expand knowledge and skills
- 4.8% Occupational—Personal satisfaction and enrichment from one’s work
- 18.3% Physical—Recognizing the need for physical activity, healthy foods, and sleep
- 10.2% Social—Developing a sense of connection, belonging, and a well-developed support system
- 19.1% Spiritual—Expanding a sense of purpose and meaning in life

Thank you for participating in this important survey. In the Fall of 2019, results will be shared with all employees of Indiana University, and we hope you’ll find that it was worthwhile to add your voice to this assessment of our workplace health and culture.
